

SPECIAL THIS WEEK

Sniider Tomato Soup ..... 8c
Sciota Sugar Corn ..... 8c
Chief Succotash ..... 8c
12c Bottled Pickles ..... 8c
Clover Hill Milk ..... 8c
Kipper Herring ..... 15c
15c can, 1-3 pound Cocoa 10c
12c Lettuce ..... 10c
French Endive ..... 25c
15c Romain ..... 10c

These Are Real Bargains

SOMERS

THE PALACE CAFE

STEP IN AND SEE US.

P. SHEA,
72 Franklin Street

Cameras and Films

No better time than now to get fine, clear pictures. No better cameras than ours to take them with. Prices from $2. to $20.

The Plaut-Cadden Co.,

Jewelers and Silversmiths.
Established 1872.
PLAUT-CADDEN BUILDING

Another Peanut Butter Sale

BEST QUALITY

10c per pound

A good way to save on your Butter Bill. The children like it better than the finest creamery.

United Tea Importers Co.

Franklin Square,
Over Somers Brothers

To Be Given Away

from Dec. 2nd to Feb. 15th, one 20 Dollar Suit of Clothes at the PALACE POOL and BILLIARD PARLORS. A coupon with each game. 5 Pool Tables and One Billiard.

"White Rose"

Peaches, Cherries, Pineapple, Salmon, Tunny Fish, Etc.

WHITE ROSE IS ALWAYS GOOD

People's Market

6 Franklin St.
JUSTIN HOLDEN, Prop.

Rallion's Store

WILL BE CLOSED THIS P. M. FOR INVENTORY

WALL PAPERS

A full line of the above with new additions coming along, including those with cut out borders.

Moldings and bands to match. Mixed paints, murexos and tints; also art glass imitations.

We are in the market for painting, paper-hanging and decorating all the time.

P. F. MURTAGH
82 and 94 West Main Street.
Phone.

GEORGE G. GRANT,

Undertaker and Embalmer

12 Providence St., Tallville.
Prompt attention to day or night calls.
Telephone 530. apr14M Wfaw1

WINTER IS HERE!

Have You An Overcoat?

We are making Light, Warm Overcoats that have style and comfort, and would be pleased to make one for you.

COXETER, Tailor

33 Broadway

Dr. J. M. KING

DENTIST

May Building
JanTuWFF

FURS REPAIRED

I will clean, repair and remodel your furs and guarantee first-class work for half price if you will notify me at once. Drop postal card and I will call and deliver all goods.

BRUCKNER, the Furrier,
Telephone. 15 Franklin Street.

The Bulletin

Norwich, Friday, Jan. 31, 1913.

VARIOUS MATTERS.

Palmertown is to have a public laundry.

Don't forget, I. O. O. F. whist and dance tonight—Adv.

Today and Saturday are observation days for February.

Little snow remained after Thursday afternoon's thaw and fog.

This week Judge Gardner Greene of Norwich is presiding in the superior court at Waterbury.

In all the Catholic churches of the diocese Bishop Nolan's regulations for Lent will be read Sunday.

Today (Friday) is the last day for the examinations by the post surgeons for military exemptions.

Complaint is made about the state of careless setting of fox traps in local valuable dogs are apt to be caught.

Don't forget the Firemen's ball in Jewett City tonight—Adv.

Landlord Frank E. Parker, of the Crocker house, is annoyed by the theft by foxes of chickens and ducks from his Derry hill farm.

Tulips, jonquils and other spring flowers are being received by the florists earlier than usual during this abnormally warm season.

Prominent Episcopalians from eastern Connecticut attended the dinner of the Church club of Connecticut at the Hotel Tenth, New Haven, Tuesday evening.

The sixth annual meeting and banquet of the Connecticut association of the Amherst alumni, is to be held at New Haven Saturday evening, February 8.

The John Fogg orchestra of Brockton, Mass., is giving at the Firemen's ball at Jewett City tonight—Adv.

District Superintendent J. H. Newland was at the Methodist church, Stafford Springs, presiding at the fourth quarterly conference Thursday evening.

Friends and former patients rejoice to learn that Dr. Leonard B. Almy continues to gain strength at his home on Washington street, keeping cheerful and hopeful.

Several from Norwich went to Norwich, Mass., Thursday evening to congratulate Rev. C. T. McCann on completing eleven years as pastor of Sacred Heart church.

Some of Montville's big taxpayers are Palmer Bros. Co., $142,720; Thomas River Specialties Co., $409,900; Universal Manufacturing Co., $131,900; C. M. Robertson Co., $118,975.

Each local freight clerk of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad has received a copy of the recent agreement made between the clerks and the management of the road.

The engine house will be open to visitors after the ball of the A. A. Young Jr. hose and ladder company at Jewett City tonight—Adv.

Making use of the parcel post, at the Montville postoffice, a good many bedquits have been mailed. The packages weigh about seven pounds and require from 10 cents postage up on each package.

Norwich friends were in New London Wednesday evening to attend the silver wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Anson C. Brown, of New London.

Sister of Mrs. S. Z. Poll, wife of the theatrical manager and owner.

The state board of education will hold an open meeting at Bacon academy, Colchester, Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, the speakers to be Secretary Charles D. Hine and Harry Houghton, supervisor of penmanship of New Haven.

The funeral of Mrs. William Hayes was held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. E. Brown, 101 Jerome avenue, Holyoke, Mass., Thursday morning at 8.30, with requiem mass at St. Roch church at 9. Burial was in Norwich.

Mrs. Marian R. H. Little of New London received word Wednesday that the funeral of her son, Bernard L. Mayner, had been held Monday at Salt Lake City, and his body deposited in the mortuary vault of the Episcopal church.

During the recent gales the roof of Camp As-You-Like-It, on South Bluffs, Bluffs Island, blew off and fell into a lot 200 feet distant. The camp is near the ocean and is owned and occupied summers by Deacon George R. Hyde and family of Yantic.

Rev. Edwin S. Holloway, a native of eastern Connecticut, pastor of Hope Baptist church, New York city, officiated at the marriage at the residence of Leonard Kent and Miss Ella Chamberlain, the actress, who was divorced from Jules Lee, a prominent St. Louis man.

Nelson G. Taintor, formerly of this city, but now of New Haven, who has been district agent here for the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance company, has been appointed to succeed John H. Thompson as general agent for southern Connecticut, following Mr. Thompson's promotion.

FUNERALS.

Mrs. Augusta M. Brown.

Thursday afternoon the funeral of Mrs. Augusta M. Brown was held from the parlors of Church Allen, and the services were conducted by Rev. Frederick W. Coleman. Jesus, Lover of My Soul, and Nearer My God, to Thee, were rendered by Mrs. George T. Lord. Burial was in Yantic cemetery, and a committal service was read at the grave by Rev. Mr. Coleman.

Harvard's Football Schedule.

Cambridge, Mass., Jan. 30.—The Harvard football schedule for 1913 has been completed by the Harvard football committee. It was learned today that while not officially announced, it was said that the schedule differs in several details from last year's.

Dartmouth, an ancient rival, has been dropped, and Amherst has withdrawn. Vanderbilt also is missing. Cornell returns to the Harvard schedule, filling the date formerly occupied by Brown.

The latter team having been moved up to the date previously held by Dartmouth. Norwich university fills Amherst's place.

Rev. George D. B. Pepper.

Waterville, Me., Jan. 30.—Rev. George D. B. Pepper, former president of Colby college and known as "Lincoln's double," died here today, aged 80 years. Rev. Mr. Pepper bore a striking resemblance to the emancipator and in his early days was often mistaken for Lincoln.

Died at Age of 115.

Frederick, Md., Jan. 30.—Sarah Ann Liles, colored, whose age was established by records at 115 years, died at a hospital near here late last night.

PERSONAL

Richard O. Libby of Norwich is spending the week at the Nanticoke house.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Parker of Norwich have been visiting friends in Groton.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Adams of Norwich have been New London visitors this week.

Mrs. A. A. Beeman and son Adelbert returned to Norwich Tuesday after a three weeks' visit in Groton.

PRESIDENT OF BOARD FOR FIFTEEN YEARS

Adams P. Carroll Declined Re-election at Central Baptist Church—C. D. Noyes His Successor.

At the recent meeting of the board of managers of the Central Baptist church, when organization for the year was effected, Adams P. Carroll, who has been president of the board for the last 15 years, declined re-election. His decision not to serve again was received with regret and a vote of thanks was passed for his long term of faithful and efficient service.

C. D. Noyes was the new president elected and Frank L. Arnold, the church clerk, was made secretary of the board. The committees for the year were selected from the following membership: A. F. McLaughlin, C. D. Noyes, P. E. Beckwith, C. W. Gale, G. Fred Noyes, G. W. Hamilton, J. P. Holloway, J. O. O. F. A. Sherry, J. L. O'Connell, G. A. Case, S. B. Palmer, Frank L. Arnold, John P. Post, A. E. Cherry, William R. Perkins, C. C. Treat, John H. Ford.

JAIL SENTENCES FOR CHUTE AND NEWBURY.

Latter Pleaded Guilty on Two Counts Ten Months for Chute, Six Months for Newbury.

In the superior court here Thursday morning the last of the mystic immorality cases were concluded, when Robert Chute and Nathan Newbury were sentenced to terms in jail for assaulting young girls. Chute was committed for ten months in jail and Newbury for six months.

Judge Shumway committed Chute to six months in jail on the first count and to two months on the six others, and on four of the counts he suspended the execution of the sentence. This means ten months for Chute to serve.

Newbury pleaded guilty on two counts and was given three months on each count.

Both men will be confined in the jail at New London, where Button and Baker are, who were also connected with these mystic cases, which are thus brought to an end.

WILL FOLLOW NORWICH PLAN IN CHARITY WORK.

Rev. C. A. Northrop and Mrs. F. A. Mitchell Will Address New London Meeting.

Preliminary steps in an effort to combine the various charitable organizations of the city will be taken at a meeting to be held in the rooms of the New London Business Men's association this afternoon.

The plan is to put all the charities of the city under one management, at the idea that a considerable saving could be effected. The project has been attempted in other cities and the success has been signal in every instance.

Rev. C. A. Northrop, city missionary of Norwich, superintendent of the United Workmen, who is in charge of the project, will be at the meeting to explain the plan, as will Mr. Mitchell.

Norwich, who was instrumental in effecting the Norwich organization.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Henry Burlingame.

Mrs. Sophronia Burlingame, widow of Henry Burlingame, whose death occurred about a year ago, died about 10 o'clock Thursday morning at her home in Nanticoke from the infirmities of old age. She had been sick for a month and was 84 years of age.

With her husband she came to Nanticoke from Waterbury about seven years ago and purchased the property where both have passed away. Her only near relative surviving is a sister, Mrs. George French of Waterbury, who has recently been with her.

Mrs. Andrew Haley.

Josephine P. Haley, wife of Andrew Haley, died on Wednesday at her home in Old Mystic. She was born Dec. 17, 1845, at her home in Old Mystic. She was the daughter of William B. and Lucy Eggleston and was born in Old Mystic. She had been sick for a month and was 67 years of age.

With her husband she came to Nanticoke from Waterbury about seven years ago and purchased the property where both have passed away. Her only near relative surviving is a sister, Mrs. George French of Waterbury, who has recently been with her.

Mrs. Andrew Haley.

Josephine P. Haley, wife of Andrew Haley, died on Wednesday at her home in Old Mystic. She was born Dec. 17, 1845, at her home in Old Mystic. She was the daughter of William B. and Lucy Eggleston and was born in Old Mystic. She had been sick for a month and was 67 years of age.

With her husband she came to Nanticoke from Waterbury about seven years ago and purchased the property where both have passed away. Her only near relative surviving is a sister, Mrs. George French of Waterbury, who has recently been with her.

Mrs. Andrew Haley.

Josephine P. Haley, wife of Andrew Haley, died on Wednesday at her home in Old Mystic. She was born Dec. 17, 1845, at her home in Old Mystic. She was the daughter of William B. and Lucy Eggleston and was born in Old Mystic. She had been sick for a month and was 67 years of age.

With her husband she came to Nanticoke from Waterbury about seven years ago and purchased the property where both have passed away. Her only near relative surviving is a sister, Mrs. George French of Waterbury, who has recently been with her.

Mrs. Andrew Haley.

Josephine P. Haley, wife of Andrew Haley, died on Wednesday at her home in Old Mystic. She was born Dec. 17, 1845, at her home in Old Mystic. She was the daughter of William B. and Lucy Eggleston and was born in Old Mystic. She had been sick for a month and was 67 years of age.

With her husband she came to Nanticoke from Waterbury about seven years ago and purchased the property where both have passed away. Her only near relative surviving is a sister, Mrs. George French of Waterbury, who has recently been with her.

Mrs. Andrew Haley.

Josephine P. Haley, wife of Andrew Haley, died on Wednesday at her home in Old Mystic. She was born Dec. 17, 1845, at her home in Old Mystic. She was the daughter of William B. and Lucy Eggleston and was born in Old Mystic. She had been sick for a month and was 67 years of age.

With her husband she came to Nanticoke from Waterbury about seven years ago and purchased the property where both have passed away. Her only near relative surviving is a sister, Mrs. George French of Waterbury, who has recently been with her.

Mrs. Andrew Haley.

Josephine P. Haley, wife of Andrew Haley, died on Wednesday at her home in Old Mystic. She was born Dec. 17, 1845, at her home in Old Mystic. She was the daughter of William B. and Lucy Eggleston and was born in Old Mystic. She had been sick for a month and was 67 years of age.

With her husband she came to Nanticoke from Waterbury about seven years ago and purchased the property where both have passed away. Her only near relative surviving is a sister, Mrs. George French of Waterbury, who has recently been with her.

Mrs. Andrew Haley.

Josephine P. Haley, wife of Andrew Haley, died on Wednesday at her home in Old Mystic. She was born Dec. 17, 1845, at her home in Old Mystic. She was the daughter of William B. and Lucy Eggleston and was born in Old Mystic. She had been sick for a month and was 67 years of age.

With her husband she came to Nanticoke from Waterbury about seven years ago and purchased the property where both have passed away. Her only near relative surviving is a sister, Mrs. George French of Waterbury, who has recently been with her.

Mrs. Andrew Haley.

Josephine P. Haley, wife of Andrew Haley, died on Wednesday at her home in Old Mystic. She was born Dec. 17, 1845, at her home in Old Mystic. She was the daughter of William B. and Lucy Eggleston and was born in Old Mystic. She had been sick for a month and was 67 years of age.

With her husband she came to Nanticoke from Waterbury about seven years ago and purchased the property where both have passed away. Her only near relative surviving is a sister, Mrs. George French of Waterbury, who has recently been with her.

Mrs. Andrew Haley.

Josephine P. Haley, wife of Andrew Haley, died on Wednesday at her home in Old Mystic. She was born Dec. 17, 1845, at her home in Old Mystic. She was the daughter of William B. and Lucy Eggleston and was born in Old Mystic. She had been sick for a month and was 67 years of age.

With her husband she came to Nanticoke from Waterbury about seven years ago and purchased the property where both have passed away. Her only near relative surviving is a sister, Mrs. George French of Waterbury, who has recently been with her.

Mrs. Andrew Haley.

Josephine P. Haley, wife of Andrew Haley, died on Wednesday at her home in Old Mystic. She was born Dec. 17, 1845, at her home in Old Mystic. She was the daughter of William B. and Lucy Eggleston and was born in Old Mystic. She had been sick for a month and was 67 years of age.

With her husband she came to Nanticoke from Waterbury about seven years ago and purchased the property where both have passed away. Her only near relative surviving is a sister, Mrs. George French of Waterbury, who has recently been with her.

Mrs. Andrew Haley.

Josephine P. Haley, wife of Andrew Haley, died on Wednesday at her home in Old Mystic. She was born Dec. 17, 1845, at her home in Old Mystic. She was the daughter of William B. and Lucy Eggleston and was born in Old Mystic. She had been sick for a month and was 67 years of age.

With her husband she came to Nanticoke from Waterbury about seven years ago and purchased the property where both have passed away. Her only near relative surviving is a sister, Mrs. George French of Waterbury, who has recently been with her.

Mrs. Andrew Haley.

Josephine P. Haley, wife of Andrew Haley, died on Wednesday at her home in Old Mystic. She was born Dec. 17, 1845, at her home in Old Mystic. She was the daughter of William B. and Lucy Eggleston and was born in Old Mystic. She had been sick for a month and was 67 years of age.

With her husband she came to Nanticoke from Waterbury about seven years ago and purchased the property where both have passed away. Her only near relative surviving is a sister, Mrs. George French of Waterbury, who has recently been with her.

Mrs. Andrew Haley.

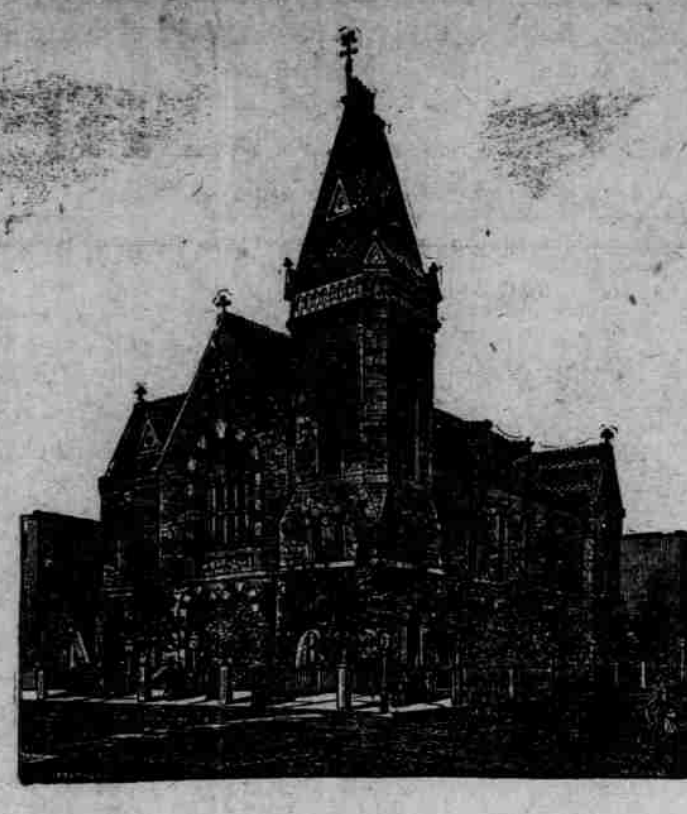

Josephine P. Haley, wife of Andrew Haley, died on Wednesday at her home in Old Mystic. She was born Dec. 17, 1845, at her home in Old Mystic. She was the daughter of William B. and Lucy Eggleston and was born in Old Mystic. She had been sick for a month and was 67 years of age.

With her husband she came to Nanticoke from Waterbury about seven years ago and purchased the property where both have passed away. Her only near relative surviving is a sister, Mrs. George French of Waterbury, who has recently been with her.

Mrs. Andrew Haley.

Josephine P. Haley, wife of Andrew Haley, died on Wednesday at her home in Old Mystic. She was born Dec. 17, 1845, at her home in Old Mystic. She was the daughter of William B. and Lucy Eggleston and was born in Old Mystic. She had been sick for a month and was 67 years of age.

With her husband she came to Nanticoke from Waterbury about seven years ago and purchased the property where both have passed away. Her only near relative surviving is a sister, Mrs. George French of Waterbury, who has recently been with her.

GETHESEMANE BAPTIST CHURCH IN PHILADELPHIA.
To Which Rev. P. C. Wright is Going as Pastor.

ACCEPTS PASTOR'S RESIGNATION

Central Baptist Church Meeting Takes Action Unanimously

But With Regret—Committee to Arrange For Farewell For P. C. Wright—Resolutions Passed.

After the covenant meeting at the Central Baptist church on Thursday evening a special business meeting of the church was held to take action on the resignation of the pastor, Rev. P. C. Wright, who has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Gethsemane Baptist church in Philadelphia.

Col. Charles W. Gale was elected chairman of the meeting and the business was opened by the reading of the letter of resignation which was presented before the church last Sunday morning.

Deacon C. Edward Smith, who is also treasurer of the church, moved its acceptance of the resignation and it was taken with no dissenting votes.

Resolutions Passed.

James L. Case then presented the following resolutions, which were adopted by the church.

Resolved, That the church record and presented to Rev. Mr. Wright.

Rev. Mr. Wright, Rev. P. C. Wright, who has served this church faithfully and successfully for nearly eleven years, has tendered his resignation, to take effect at the close of Sunday, Feb. 23, 1913; therefore, be it

Resolved, That during these years of his service to this church, and to the community, by his untiring and kind ministrations to this church, and to the community, he has been a dearer himself to us for all time; and although saddened at the parting from him and his family, we thank our Heavenly Father for every year of his leadership as our pastor and bid him Godspeed in the larger field to which he is called.

Lucius Brown Speaks.

Lucius Brown, a member of the board of managers of the church, spoke briefly but feelingly, saying that he had been a member of the church since its organization in 1860. He said that he had been a member of the church since its organization in 1860. He said that he had been a member of the church since its organization in 1860.

Resolved, That during these years of his service to this church, and to the community, by his untiring and kind ministrations to this church, and to the community, he has been a dearer himself to us for all time; and although saddened at the parting from him and his family, we thank our Heavenly Father for every year of his leadership as our pastor and bid him Godspeed in the larger field to which he is called.

Resolved, That during these years of his service to this church, and to the community, by his untiring and kind ministrations to this church, and to the community, he has been a dearer himself to us for all time; and although saddened at the parting from him and his family, we thank our Heavenly Father for every year of his leadership as our pastor and bid him Godspeed in the larger field to which he is called.

Resolved, That during these years of his service to this church, and to the community, by his untiring and kind ministrations to this church, and to the community, he has been a dearer himself to us for all time; and although saddened at the parting from him and his family, we thank our Heavenly Father for every year of his leadership as our pastor and bid him Godspeed in the larger field to which he is called.

Resolved, That during these years of his service to this church, and to the community, by his untiring and kind ministrations to this church, and to the community, he has been a dearer himself to us for all time; and although saddened at the parting from him and his family, we thank our Heavenly Father for every year of his leadership as our pastor and bid him Godspeed in the larger field to which he is called.

Resolved, That during these years of his service to this church, and to the community, by his untiring and kind ministrations to this church, and to the community, he has been a dearer himself to us for all time; and although saddened at the parting from him and his family, we thank our Heavenly Father for every year of his leadership as our pastor and bid him Godspeed in the larger field to which he is called.

Resolved, That during these years of his service to this church, and to the community, by his untiring and kind ministrations to this church, and to the community, he has been a dearer himself to us for all time; and although saddened at the parting from him and his family, we thank our Heavenly Father for every year of his leadership as our pastor and bid him Godspeed in the larger field to which he is called.

Resolved, That during these years of his service to this church, and to the community, by his untiring and kind ministrations to this church, and to the community, he has been a dearer himself to us for all time; and although saddened at the parting from him and his family, we thank our Heavenly Father for every year of his leadership as our pastor and bid him Godspeed in the larger field to which he is called.

Resolved, That during these years of his service to this church, and to the community, by his untiring and kind ministrations to this church, and to the community, he has been a dearer himself to us for all time; and although saddened at the parting from him and his family, we thank our Heavenly Father for every year of his leadership as our pastor and bid him Godspeed in the larger field to which he is called.

Resolved, That during these years of his service to this church, and to the community, by his untiring and kind ministrations to this church, and to the community, he has been a dearer himself to us for all time; and although saddened at the parting from him and his family, we thank our Heavenly Father for every year of his leadership as our pastor and bid him Godspeed in the larger field to which he is called.

Resolved, That during these years of his service to this church, and to the